FLORIDA REGIONAL COUNCILS ASSOCIATION ELECTS NASSAU COUNTY COMMISSION VICE-CHAIR, MICHAEL BOYLE, AS ITS FIRST VICE PRESIDENT

Today, at its meeting in Marco Island, Florida, the Florida Regional Councils Association unanimously elected Nassau County Commission Vice-Chair, Michael Boyle, as its First Vice President. The Florida Regional Councils Association is the statewide organization representing Florida's eleven Regional Planning Councils and coordinates the public policy development considered by the Florida Legislature. Commissioner Boyle is scheduled to become President of the Florida Regional Councils Association in June 2010.

Commissioner Boyle is a member and President of the Northeast Florida Regional Council, which represents Baker, Clay, Duval, Flagler, Nassau, Putnam and St. Johns Counties.
