

A1A IN DUVAL AND NASSAU COUNTIES

is now a

DESIGNATED FLORIDA SCENIC AND HISTORIC HIGHWAY!

A1A has been designated a Scenic and Historic Coastal Highway in Flagler and St. Johns Counties. The designation of A1A in Duval and Nassau Counties will allow tourists and residents to experience natural beauty and cultural, historical and recreational resources from the southern tip of Flagler County through Nassau County, making the Highway a world class destination. This effort offers new opportunities for local businesses, encourages economic development, and enhances the visitor travel experience. This designation benefits the local tourism industry and will enhance Northeast Florida for generations to come.

The corridor is named "A1A Ocean Islands Trail".

Photos from the Nassau Meeting

Want to join the group? Contact Chelly Schembera at chellyfla@aol.com

Corridor Intrinsic Resource Photos

Presentations

Related Information

Letter of Intent

State Comments on Letter of Intent

Comment Form

Sample Annual Reports

Meeting Notices

Meeting Agenda

Meeting Minutes

Flyer

Survey

Florida Scenic Highways Program Discussion Forum Summary

Eligibility Application

Corridor Designation Letter