

Resolution

Northeast Florida Regional Council

2017-10

Community Planning Month

WHEREAS, the month of October is designated as National Community Planning Month throughout the United States of America and its territories, and

WHEREAS, the celebration of National Community Planning Month gives us the opportunity to publicly recognize the participation and dedication of public officials and citizens who understand, support, and demand excellence in planning and plan implementation and contributed their time and expertise to the improvement of Northeast Florida and its communities

WHEREAS, community planning provides an opportunity for all residents to be meaningfully involved in making choices that determine the future of their community; and

WHEREAS, community planning and plans can help manage the constant change affecting all regions, cities, towns, suburbs, counties, rural areas, and other places in a way that provides better choices for how people work and live; and

WHEREAS, the American Planning Association and its professional institute, the American Institute of Certified Planners, endorse National Community Planning Month as an opportunity to highlight the contributions sound planning and plan implementation make to the quality of our settlements and environment; and

WHEREAS, we recognize the many valuable contributions made by professional community and regional planners in Northeast Florida and extend our heartfelt thanks for the continued commitment to public service by these professionals;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT, the Northeast Florida Regional Council observes the month of October 2017 as Community Planning Month in Northeast Florida in conjunction with the celebration of National Community Planning Month.

Unanimously adopted by the Northeast Florida Regional Council in a regular meeting assembled in the City of Jacksonville, on the fifth day of October, 2017.
